AT THE ALLEGHANY.

A LIVELY SEASON AT THIS SUMMER RESORT.

A Handsome Supper and Grand Fancy Ball and Card Parties Personal Mention.

> ALLEGHANY SPRINGS, VA., September 6, 1888.

To the Editor of the Dispatch : inst one week ago there was given at s famous old Virginia mountain resort Mr. Robert C. Colhoun, of Virginia, Miss Stella Cowan, of Mississippi, one the handsomest suppers that has been gread here for years. The invited ats were few in number, being only a on couples, but one could tell by the laughter that rang through the dining-hall and by the jests followed one another in so I succession that those who been so honored fully appreciated occasion. The young lady to whom g and popular debutantes of the on and has by her recent departure nany who miss her bright eyes and winning ways. It was observed as present that one guest was at the t-table whose name was not among st of those invited by the handso twanging of his bow break the harmony of the occaand it is rumored by the gossips he place that it was not without the derstanding of the host that the god of the bow was present. "but coodness sake don't say I told you." ever, the aforesaid uninvited guest show insinuates himself into most ed places here, and his comnever seems to be shunned by even most aristocratic denizens of the

Thursday evening last occurred f the most beautiful scenes that has seen at the Springs this summerthe fancy dress ball. The coawere of handsome material and thoroughly becoming to their one would have thought when saw the procession form in the parlor slowly wend its way to the that he had suddenly been transsted to farryland, such was the contre of Fairies, Gypsies, Goddesses, Lords and Ladies of "Ye olden mong the many and varied costumes

Warner, of New Orleans, "Godof Music," sstin skirt with crepe drapery, thickly dotted with tiny signs of black velvet. A black ret chef in her golden hair comthis most tasteful costume.

McCormico, of New Orleans,

Yum," a gown of figured Japan-silk and a head-dress of fans, Miss Arma Brand, of New Orleans, India-silk draperies ; orna- them Cecile Nugent, of Mississippi,

'Yum-Yum," black and yellow silk. Miss Janie Smith, of Danville, "Baby," white silk, mull baby trim-Eva Flanagan, of New York,

"Old English Lady," white crepe de chine; pearl ornaments. Miss Temmie Page, of New Orleans, "Haby," white lace slip, blue trimmings; creaments, a rattle and a rag doll.

Miss Warriner, of Memphis, "Gypsy Get." red and yellow silk, black velvet. M. W. Wisdom, of New Orleans "Quakeress," gown of dark gray cloth, Miss Treadwell, of Memphis, "Black-aled Nun" (a most becoming costume), black Henrietta cloth ; a white Miss Clapp, of Memphis, "Marchion-black silk en train, yellow bro-Miss Mona Weis, of Galveston, Spanish Girl," yellow satin and black Miss Belle Weis, of Galveston, " Maud Muller," pink silk, natural flowers.

Miss Sailie Cowan, of Vicksburg, Japanese costume, apricot satin and tur- for a long time." moise blue plush, silver trimmings, Miss Stella Cowan, of Vicksburg, Japanese costume, pink and blue satin, old trimmings.

Miss May Waddill, of Mississippi, white embroidered mull. Miss Annie Colhoun, of Virginia, "Greek Girl," white embroidered crepe draperies (a very bandsome costume). Miss Brown, of Pennsylvania, "rouge et noir." black and red tulle, card trim-Some of the costumes of the gentlemen were well gotten up, but space for-bids describing them, although I cannot forbear mentioning those of Mr. Thomas Porter, of Birmingham-viz., a "Jockey"

dr. John Caldwell, of the same place, as 'Frost," and Mr. James S. Peters, of irginia, as a "Gentleman of ye Olden ime." Mr. Porter's costume consisted d blue and black velvet, with high-top black boots; Mr. Caldwell's of a full dress suit of white flannel, sparkling with diamond-dust. Mr. Peters's cos time was most effective-black broadoth trousers, silver knee-buckles, rufand shirt, swallow-tail cont, and powdered hair. A EUCHRE PARTY.

On last evening avery "swell" euchre party was given by Mesdames McComico New Orleans and S. F. Catchings of Louisiana. The elegant prizes were distributed to Miss Dergan of Mobile, Mrs. engagen Catchings of Memphis, and Mrss Eva Plannagan, of New York, as being the best lady players, and to Mr. Mallory, of Richmond, for excelling among the gentlemen. Miss Cacile Nugent and Leigh Per. gent and Leigh Page, of Richmond, were the "boobies." A liberal collation was served, at which the sparkle of champagne added brilliancy and zest to

Mrs. McComico, one of the hostesses, ine justly been one of the most popular action here this summer, as she adds to beautiful face most charming manners and splendid conversational powers. always surrounded by a coterie of the most select gentlemen of the mote and to hear her ringing laugh. he is also doubly sought as being the taperon of quite a party of New Orleans belies. Several enchre parties are espected in the next few days, and the eason is not over here by a good deal. SHETEP.

PETERSBURG NEWS.

Sepublican Campaign Circulars-Ose Attacks Judge Thurman.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Petersauro, September 8, 1888. The issue and distribution of political circulars from Republican headquarters in this city is large. Some of these pa-New York, others are prepared, pub-shed, and sent out direct from headmarters. One of the latter just come to ight is directed against Judge Thurman, the Democratic candidate for Vice-President, and is intended to influence the negroes against him. All may be fair in politics, but the spirit that could dietate such a circular as this against a man of Mr. Thurman's reputation and standing must be regarded as a very narrow one Circulars are also being distributed to influence the Irish vote against President Cleveland. It was written by John Devoy, the disappointed Irishman of New York. It will fail of effect in Petersburg, where the Irish voters are, as a general thing, all Democrats and men of intelligence, and people who are not swayed by campaign literature and clap-PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. Charles Watson, member of the Common Council from Third Ward, is visiting relations in Nova Scotia.

Judge Arnold, the white Republican candidate for Congress, spoke here last hight. It is more than probable that he will receive the nomination by the Farmville Convention. He is running with General Mahone's sanction, and if that means anything it means his nominaon, unless a stronger man is developed before the convention. The experience of both Langston and Judge Arnold in this canvass, if reports be true, indicates that it is an expensive luxury to run for Congress on the Republican ticket.

GENERAL NOTES. The internal-revenue collections in this city during the week ending yesterday were $5,520, and the exports of manufactured tobacco 75,386 pounds.

The inspections of tobacco during the week were 236 hogsheads, and the receipts 111 hogsheads. Sales of loose, the Dispatch with accounts of 24,000 pounds.

The public schools of this city will

The rains of this week have been abundant for all purposes throughout this sec-tion, and, it is believed, will result in wide pasture lands here and skirts the ROBIN ADAIR.

GOOD FOR DANVILLE.

Atlantic and Danville Entlway to be Completed-Tobacco Trade, Etc. (Special telegram to the Dispatch.) DANVILLE, VA., September 8.-Information is had here from the most reliable Railway Company have made all arrange-ments to complete their line to Danville, trains a day keeping up the ever-busy and it is promised that the road will be hum of life day in and day out. finished to this point by next summer. This is good news for Danville, and will do much to help the healthy business reaction which has already set it.

Mention has been made in these dispatches of the upset bid which was put in by J. J. Allen on the Star Wareh property. Judge Blackwell decided today to allow the bid, and ordered a resale of the property.

The leaf-tobacco market is rather uninteresting this week. Receipts light and prices unchanged. Much uneasiness is nanifested as to the effect of the wet weather on the growing crop. Manufac-turing business is lively, and the shipments during the week amounted to 160,000 pounds. The flags for the signal station here were received to-day, and the service will go into effect on Monday.

out with the boys the night before, and he wanted a drink of it pretty badly. You drink first, Flo," said one of

"Oh, no; you, Bess."
"Never! Go on, Flo."

"I won't do it. Drink yourself,

There were now two men waiting. "I think you're mean-when you know want von to! 'I don't care-you've got to drink first, because I won't." Well, then, if I must I suppose I There were now four thirsty men in line waiting anxiously. 'My, but it's cold. "Is it?"

"Don't drink it too fast or it'll make you sick.

There were eight men waiting to get a drink now. "Tis cold, isn't it, Bess?" "Cold as ice. "I s'pose there's ice in it."

"Of course.

"I'm going to drink real slow." "That's right—the boat won't be here

Sixteen men!

"Does it? "Yes-makes 'em ache." "It never does mine."

"It always does mine-real hard."

"It does, though. Don't you want some more ? The census was taken at this point, and thirty-two men found gazing longingly at the ice-water tank. "My; I guess I did want some

Course you did-drink a whole lot.'

another drop."
"Oh, yes, you can."

"No, I can't."

less with thirst. "I'll just kill myself drinking so much-I know I shall."

"Oh, no you won't." .. But the horrid stuff is so awfully "That don't make any difference."

The crowd of thirsty men was now too long to count, but a careful estimate placed the number at 128.

"Let me have just a little more."
"Why, you'll kill yourself—I never saw anybody drink ice-water so in my "Oh, pshaw, I haven't drunk much.

You'll want some more yourself before Don't know but I will-just push down on that thing again, won't you?"

"Oh, here's our boat hurry up or we'll get left!" and then the dear creatures left the tin cup swinging at the end of the chain and rushed for the gate.

Then that crowd of men fought with short but deep; and perhaps a quarter of them managed to get a drink before the least stories. the boat started.

A Boston Dog Story.

small boy, not more than five years old, who reside in or near the town. running away. He is a sturdy, stout-legged little chap, of great courage and enterprise, but his father and mother have been put to a good deal of anxiety on his account. Sometimes he is found large and growing congregation will have the highest compliment a speaker can two handsome and comfortable houses of receive. Appointance will be all right road, and again in a certain pasture where he enjoys the congenial society of several young colts, but it is always a matter of doubt where he will be discovered. Recently, however, the family have acquired a mongrel little ter-rier, recommended for the purpose, who hunts up Sammy with unerring accuracy, Whenever Sammy is missing his mother shows his jacket to the dog and tells him to find the boy, whereupon the animal sets off with his nose to the ground, the aired man or somebody else follows, and in due time the young vagabond is brought to bay. Surely there is a hint here for many anxious mothers.

"Too Late."

Weary of this lonely wandering
All alone in the cruel world,
Cancilor because my darling
Shares it not is look or word;
Once he loved me truly, fondly,
And I throw his love away;
Now he halso me flercely, justly,
Now has sugar has its away.

In the baling summer evenings,
In the winter's coldest night,
He was ever near me watching,
Only me, his beart's delight;
How I long for one fond word now
To heal my sad and bleeding heart,
This too his, he siways shows me,
By the look his eyes impart.

A Beautiful and Fertile Country-Successful Farming-Schools and Churches, &c.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] SEVEN-MILE FORD,) SMYTH COUNTY, VA., September 8, 1888.

Although several enthusiastic travellers have recently entertained the readers of promise and progress of this great Southopen for the fall session on the 19th in-thing from this richest and healthiest part of it, The middle fork of the Holston runs rich blue-grass hill, topped with pretty groves and flecked with thousands of sleek lowing cattle and bleating sheep. The pretty rushing stream furnishes bass-fishing that would even tempt the presidential Isaac Walton again from his nsavory pension vetoes and fishy anadian business if half the truth Canadian were told him. And the Norfolk and source that the Atlantic and Danville Western through line runs up and down

> A COMING PLACE. Right here at Seven-Mile Ford, so called because it is the ford in the river which is seven miles from Marion, is, as an old farmer enthusiastically remarked yesterday, "the centre of gravitation," the finest fruit section of Southwest Virginia, none better for vegetables, convenient to the fine Chilbowie sulphur spring, a newly-discovered and strong chalybeate spring, and the shipping point for the famous Ashe county mine and arsenic water of North Caro-There is a cannery now here in successful operation working up the peaches and tomatoes that the farmers are daily bringing in, two stores, and two small hotels, generally full, but the must be built sooner or later, I ever saw. CABBAGE, co. A farmer near here with eight acres from the advocacy of this so-called pro-well as the trade at that point. Nearly $100,000 worth of this vegetable was shipped from that station last year, one shipped from that station last year, one shipped from the station last year, one shipped from the station last year, one shipped from the station last year, one shipped from that source alone. The crop this season is estimated at about firee times what it was last year, and it is thought that fully $0.00 acres of cabbages are in cultivation in Wythe alone, which, if the crop yields as well as it did last year, will be come out victor, it mattered not how suice or expert the antagonist he hadon of the price it did last year, will be price the price it did last year, will be repeated with an applicate that caused the court-room to reverberate with an applicate that caused the court-room to reverberate with an applicate that caused the court-room to reverberate with an applicate that its anti

The Democracy of this city will hold a mass-meeting here on next Wedness to enter the day night for the purpose of reorganization of the Executive Wellows and the propose of alone the purpose of money could be made upon the source alone. The crop this season is estimated at about for the purpose of reorganization of the Executive Committee, and other matters pertaining the barge Experiment, who has made the welkin ring on more whether that the purpose of reads and servences of as a source of the purpose of money could be made upon the debt due of 1550-88 and the purpose of reads and servences of as a source of the purpose of money could be made the purpose of money to the section of the Executive Committee, and other matters pertaining the barge Experiment, who has made the welkin ring on more than one attituded and in healthcal the made and substitute. The beat made the purpose of as a source of a comfortable home. Trustees and substitute and bound for Philagelphia and the purpose of the purpose of the purpose of SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES. I was at Glade Spring, in Washington county, yesterday, and found that pretty little town has improved wonderfully since I last visited it several years ago. "Yes, after you get through."

"I've got enough—couldn't drink"
"I've got enough—couldn't drink"
"I've got enough—couldn't drink" is located. This is a private school built up and mainly supported by the Baptist ienomination, and is a splendid monu-Sixty-four men reported. Those who | ment to the zeal and indomitable energy and first fallen into line were now speech- of the Rev. J. R. Harrison, pastor of the Baptist church here.

BENEVOLENT BAPTISTS.

Four years ago he started this enterprise by the purchase of a neat house with accommodations for twelve boarders. This year quite a large builting, costing about $4,000, has been added, the whole building as completed costing about $15,000, and presenting a very attractive appearance with its long double porticos, ornamented with a profusion of owers, and its handsome, well-kept grounds. This is not a money-making enterprise. The building was erected by private contributions made by individuals and churches among the Baptist people of Virginia in response to the appeals of Mr. Harrison, who says that Richmond helped him when he could get aid no-where else, and without the aid of Richmond Baptists the enterprise would bardly have succeeded. They have also bought handsome property and started a promising male school here, and with the valuable church property, church and manse located here, where at least $25,000 to-day.

PROGRESSIVE PRESETTERIANS. It is always permissible, I take it, in pleting a handsome brick church at this column at least, to tell a dog story, Glade Spring, which will cost nearly he has never allowed to lag.

WILSON-JEFFRESS. Marriage of Mr. George N. Wilson and Miss Rose Lee Jeffress at

Beysville. KEYSVILLE, VA., September 7, 1888,

To the Editor of the Diepatch : On Wednesday at the Episcopal church Miss Rose Lee Jeffress, the highly accomplished daughter of Mr. E. H. Jeffress, was married to Mr. George N. Wilson, of Danville, Va. After the ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. Mr. Overbey, the bridal party and in-vited guests retired to the home of Mr. Jeffress, where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed and dancing kept up to 3 A. M., at which time the bride and groom left via Richmond for a visit to the northern can constituents. cities and Nisgara, expecting to reach part of the month. The attendants were as follows: William Irvine, Jr., and Miss Willie Jeffress, W. T. Paxton and Miss Mary Scott, S. W. Helm and Miss Fannie Jeffress, W. M. Woodson and Miss Sallie Brooks, J. E. Perkinson and Miss Sallie Brooks, J. E. Perkinson and Miss Sallie Effect, J. W. Boswell and Miss Elife Effect, J. W. Boswell and Miss Sallie Effect, J. W. Boswel Danville, their future home, the latter Guthrie Renominated Judge in West

DISTRESSING DEATH FROM CONCEN

were particularly handsome, and, upon the whole, the marriage was one of the most brilliant ever witnessed by this writer. An old-fashioned Virginia we was accorded all by Mr. and Mrs. Jeffress at their home, and everything in their power to enhance the enjoyment of the guests they did. We did enjoy ourselves, and that heartily. Participant.

BEIRNE AND M'KENNEY.

They Make Fine Speeches in Nottoway County. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

JENNINGS'S ORDINARY, VA., (September 7, 1888. Yesterday was County-Court day, but more politics than litigation was dis-pensed. Rain came in torrents all the could meet the Democratic electors.

Mesers. Beirne and McKenney were on the court-house. Mr. McKenney, the elector for this district, preceded, addressing himself chiefly to the tariff in general and the Mills bill in particular. Especially clear was his method of handling the "trusts,"

Mr. Robert Blanton, in this county, on stating incidentally that Judge Arnold, the Mahoneite, was a member of the At the June term of the County Court peanut trust. Mr. Beirne demolished the barricades grounds against Protection. In Nottoway Langston's following is T.

BLACKSTONE, September 7, 1888. To the Editor of the Dispatch:

It was the fortune of the people of Nottoway to listen on Thursday last to an intellectual treat upon the most imgrandest site for a grand hotel, which portant issue of the nineteenth century-He'd been before, and last year, having to some extent taken the place of the wheat crop. The large to some before, and the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. The large to some the place of the wheat crop. fields blue with it, seen as you pass along the through the country, remind one of Nottoway Courthouse, and during the grounds on which the verdict was set the truck-farms near our large cities. recess of the court occupied the courtknow something more about it. An ex- representative of the Young Demoperienced cabbage-man tells me that 7,000 plants are rather below the average number put on an acre. Although in able and effective speech, going tive pounds and often more, two pounds in ay be taken as a safe average, which makes 14,000 pounds per acre raised.

The section agreed many beads weigh into details, and giving a succinct account of the baneful effect that this iniquitous protective system of high tariff. Abrick, taken from the chimney of the said intograph of the country under Republication of the said upon the country under Republication of the said intograph of the said intograph of the said intograph of the seventeenth street, opposite the Chesapeake and this trial was the same as at the former, with the exception of two additional witnesses, whose evidence at this trial was the same as at the former, with the exception of two additional witnesses, whose evidence failed to strengthen the Commonwealth's case, under the said judgment of the Circuit Court as well as his own he therefore so ordered.

A brick, taken from the chimney of having been cut three years. four cents per pound during the fall and winter. Now the early portion of the crop is bringing one half and three quarter cents per pound, so an average of $130,000,000 up to June last. This They often sell at two, three, and even lican control, and which party is still adone and a half cents is a safe figure, locked up in vaults, no use to the citi-"No twon't. I ste three dishes of ice-cream with Charlie the other night fast can be equalled by few crops and even Republican party wish to increase that in very fine cabbage has been offered tective system.

S1.000 for his crop and refused to sell.

Mr. McKenney was frequently interthe cabbage district of this county, and its cultivation has been very profitable as people of Nottoway, and they will, well as the trade at that point. Nearly whenever he revisits them, give him a speech that caused the court-room to re-verberate with an applause that its antiquarian walls were unaccustomed to. country people have visited the city this. The arraignment of the Republican party was forcible, classing it as the party of monopolies, syndicates, trusts, and combinations, and the protection to the poor man was in the Democratic ranks.

Colonel Beirne concluded amid much enthusiasm. Captain P. W. McRinney, of Farmville, closed the meeting in a short and striking speech, saying that tariff or no tariff we are for Cleveland, and that this district will give in the coming election a good reckoning. We hope that the return in the coming election in November next will be grati fying to these gentlemen, who put themselves to the trouble to come to Nottoway to aid us in this important work.

TUCKER AT APPOMATTOX. He Captivates the Good People of the County-Colonel Poore Speaks.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

APPOMATION COURTHOUSE, VA., ? Yesterday was the first day of our court, and notwithstanding the cold rain there was quite a large crowd present, attracted by the announcement.

A lot that Hen St. Governments.

open the campaign in the county.

The court met at 12:30 o'clock, took a recess for dinner, when Colonel R. B.
Poore, of this county, opened the ball in a clear, forcible, and strong speech of case hear when the strong speech of the county with the county of the county with the county one hour, which was listened to from beginning to end with that attention which amen-corner church-members pay to their favorite preachers. Harry Tucker then followed in a speech of one ment, and attractiveness ranks with any political effort ever made here. Mr. Tucker was known to few of our people until this visit, but this one effort has tixed him forever in our hearts and this column at least, to tell a dog story, and I heard the other day of a new use for animals of this kind. A friend of mine who lives in the suburbs has a small boy, not more than five years old, who reside in or near the town. Such a small boy, not more than five years old, I believe, who has an inveterate habit of running away. He is a sturdy, stoutlegged little chap, of great courage and legged little chap, of great courage and when Appoint tox people say that of a man they feel that they have paid him > for Cleveland, Thurman, and Tucker. The trial of Henry Brown (colored), charged with the killing of Dillory Cole-

A Royall Success with Heavy Gaines. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]
BURREVILLE, VA., September 8.—In a discussion between Thomas E. Royall came faster and more furious as and W. F. Gaines on the issues of the prepared to strike a match. By campaign here to-day the Democracy came out on top. Mr. Royall gave a masterly exhibit of Republican incon-sistency in national politics and by some argument and hard facts convinced his unbiased hearers of the miquities of the tariff. Mr. Gaines dedged the issue and indulged in a rambling demagogic address, to the edification of his Republi-

THE CHILD DRANK LYE

TRATED LYE IN PREDERICKSBURG. An Exciting Arson Trial in Spotsylvant Court-Ella Tibbs Discharged-An

Ancient Landmark, Etc. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sept. 8, '88. old son of William M. Barnes, in this county, died under the most distressing circumstances on last Wednesday. On Tuesday the mother was using some concentrated lye about the house and she placed a teacupful on a small table, and ile attending to some domestic affairs the little fellow got hold of it and drank it. At first the mother thought he was choked, but after causing him to vomit she discovered that he had drank the lye. All antidotes known to the family and neighborhood were applied, but to no effect, and after lingering sixteen while, and only a portion of our people | hours the cold hand of death closed the little sufferer's life on earth. The entire community sympathizes with the behand, and were accorded the freedom of reaved parents in the loss of their only of Republicanism all around, and closed in a special assault upon their Protection granted a new trial by Judge Earton, of the Circuit Court of this county. Mr. ideas "was taken to taw from whereas to A. B. Rawlings appeared for the Com-Mr. Beirne took advanced monwealth, and Mr. A. H. Dick-against Protection. inson, of this city, and Judge stoway Langston's following is T. N. Welch, of Caroline, appearlarge among the negroes, albeit the policians, watched by the spies of the "little king," oppose him with a vengeance.

Spotsylvania County Court was en-

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

1. N. Welch, of Cafoline, appearance, was manifested by the public generally in the trial of the case. The attorneys on both sides made able argu-The case was given to the jury late Wednesday evening, who after a few moments returned to the courtroom for further instructions and explanations. After receiving them from the Judge they retired, and brought in a vertice of three years' confinement in kind. portant issue of the nineteenth century—that of tariff reform, or, in other words, a reduction of iniquitous war taxes sion followed between the attorneys on But the talk of all the country round is cabbage, a comparatively new industry, and a most promising and profitable one here. Nearly every farmer young ladies approached the ice-water tank in the waiting-room of the Staten-island ferry. They wanted a drink of water. Near by stood a man, who also wanted a drink of the water. He'd been out with the boys the night before, and last very larger than the boys the night before, and last very larger than the boys the night before, and last very larger than the document of iniquitous war taxes that have so depressed the people, especially of the South, for the last twenty years, from two gentlemen in every way worthy the honor they esponse, for the accused, moved the Court that their ability. These gentlemen were Hen. W. R. McKenney, of Petersburg, the boundary cound district, and Colonel Richard F. Beirne, of the city of Richmond, Demogratic elector at large. At the solicits. had no further testimony in the case, the order was then made, and the prisoner grounds on which the verdict was set aside and the prisoner discharged were The crop is so profitable that I would like for some of your farmer readers in other sections adapted to its cultivation to speech Hon. W. R. McKenney as the first trial said they were insufficient to sustain the verdict, and as insufficient to sustain the verdict, and as the evidence at this trial was the same as FICE FURNITURE, ac., AT AUCTION.—On

A brick, taken from the chimney of the residence of Mr. G. T. Ferneycream with Charlie the other night fast can be equalled by few crops and even as I could swallow them and it didn't the half of it. It beats wheat or tobacname. The brick is of the salmon quality, and is in an excellent state of preser-Mr. McKenney was frequently interwation. The inscriptions covered almost from the cubbage district of this county and the cubbage district of the cubbage district o clear no doubt as the day on which they

The Democracy of this city will hold

Senator Cullom tells a good story-and not being given to practicing law much himself, savs a Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune, I suppose he can afford to do so—of a pros-perous storekeeper in a small Illinois town, the name of which has escaped me, who once practiced law, but who has long since abandoned it. Being met by an old acquaintance he was asked for all the particulars of his giving up the

"Didn't it agree with your health ?" "Oh, yes," answered 'Uncle Joe, as he was familiarly called by his friends.

"Didn't it pay?"
"First rate." "Meet with sufficient favor from the

"All I could ask." "Then what was it compelled you to Well, I'll tell you-I was too hon-

A loud laugh from the bystanders that Hon. St. George Tucker would aroused "Uncle Joe" into earnestness and he repeated the strange statement and nailed it to his shop-counter with his huge fist. But his cross-questioner

When did you find this out?" "In my very last case."
"What was that?"

"One in which I was retained to prosecute a neighbor for killing a dog." "And he was acquitted? So you lost the case and gave up your profession dishour and a half, which for wit, argu-couraged?"

"No, he was convicted." "Then he was guilty?" "No, he was innocent." "But didn't the evidence prove his

"Certainly it did." "Then why do you say he was inno-Because I had killed the dog myself a few nights before for trespassing on my poultry, and I came to the conclusion that

The Spooks Were Cats. Strange noises in an unoccupied house on the Passaic river, near Avondale, N. J., aroused coriosity and started stories man (colored), is in progress. Colonel of ghosts. Wednesday evening Charles R. B. Poore and Mr. H. D. Flood will Caldwell, who had little faith in spooks, determined to ascertain the cause and Slept in the building. He had scarcely put out his light before there was a tapping noise on the floor. The taps became faster and more furious as ne he had made a light the poises had stopped, and a careful search failed to reveal anything. He was as wise in the morning as he had been the night before and no wiser. Thursday night Constable Osborne kept company with him in the vigil. They turned the light low when they threw themselves on their cots and presently the tapping noise was heard. The light was turned up in an instant, and a cat was seen dancing on the bare floor. Its four paws had been crowded

AUCTION SALES - Honday. By John T. Goddin, Real Estate Agent and Auction Bank and Kleventh streets.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF A BENRICO COUNTY, ON DEEP-RUN TURNFIRE, ABOUT RIGHT MILES FROM RICHFIRE, ABOUT RIGHT MILES FROM RICHMOND, AT AUCTION.—By virue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Henrico county, entered on the 10th day of July, 188, in the case of Blackburn and wife as Patamon et als, the undersigned, special commissioners, will sell at public suction, at Henrico county court-bouse, on MONDAY, SETTEMBER 10, 1888, at 12 o'clock M. (that being court-day), the abovedescribed FARM OF FIFTY ACRES, 19.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1888, at 12 o'clock M. (that being court-day), the above-described FARM OF FIFFY ACRES lying on the north side of the Deep-Run turnpike, or Broadstreet road, about eight miles from Richmond, and adjoining the lands of Mr. John W. Alley and other. Some of the land is of good quality and a portion in woods. There is a small dwelling on the place.

TRANS: One fourth cash: belance in one, two, and three years for negotiaths notes, interest added and tide retained until all the purchasemoney is paid and a coursyance ordered by the Court.

E. C. MINOR,

CONWAY R. SANDS,

Special Commissioners.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF HES.

Al.S.:

I. W. S. Leake, clerk of the said court, do here-by certify that Special-Commissioners A. R. Couriney, Edmund C. Misor, and Conway B. Sands have given the bond required of them by decree entered in said cause on the 10th day of W. S. LEAKE. By George W. Mayo, Auctioneer,

No. 24 Ninth street. Mr. Robert Blanton, in this county, on the night of the 17th of February last, RESTAURANT TABLES, CHAIRS, CROCKERY, LARGE COCKING-STOVE, AND OTHER FURNITURE AT AUCTION.—02 she was tried and convicted and sen-

(Juo. E. Laughton, Jr., Salesman.)

MONDAY THE 10TH INSTANT, MONDAY THE 10TH INSTANT, at 10% ofclock; I will sell at the bouse No. 1400
west Broad street, opposite Hickmond College, the FIXTURES OF A KESTAURANT, consisting of one large-size COMING-STOVE, in excellent order; TABLES, several dozen CHAIRS, CKOCKERY, GLASSWARE, TABLEWARH, TIN
NAFRS, CUTLERY, and many other useful articles. To be removed at once.

GEORGE W. MAYO,
as 5.
Auctioneer. tenced to three years in the penitentiary,

By George W. Mayo, Auctioneer, Uno. E. Laughton, Jr., Salesman,) No. 24 Ninth street

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, NO-TIONS, SHOW-CASES, MISCELLANEOUS GOODS AT AUCTION.—On

A UCTION SALE OF LEMONS, AP-MONDAY, at 12 o'clock-25 barrels CHOICE APPLES; 120 bunches CHOICE KIPE BANANAS. WILLAM JENKINS, Commission Merchan se 9 1440 cast Main stre

AUCTION NALES-Future Days. By George W. Mayo, Austioneer, (Jno. E. Laughton, Jr., Salesman,)

SPECIAL SALE OF OAK AND

No. 24 Ninth street.

ments: 2 x 10, 216, 218, 314, 414, 715, and other sizes.

WHITE OAK RIMBER: 214, 84, 94, 6-4, 10-4, and 11 y. This is all thoroughly seasoned, having been cut three years.

1 LUMBER WAGON and HARNESS;

FICE DESKS, CHAIRS, STOVES, &c. This sale should attract the attention GEORGE W. MAYO

Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers,

SATURDAY, FRITAMBER 15, 1888,

DEAUTIFUL BUILDING-LOTS IN
ASHLAND FOR SALE-100x300 feet corner
James and Randolph streets, 73x100 feet corner
Have and Duncan streets,
HANDSOME RESIDENCE with Lawn of TWO ACRES attached, ornamented with handsome fruit-trees. Apply to POINDEXTER DENOON,
Se 9-cod3t Road Estate Agents.

TUX.—On
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1889,

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1889,

TUX.—On
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1889,

At 10% o'clock, I will sell at the rooms over Mr.
C. Hasse, No. 634 east Broad, near Seventh street,

a very nice assortment of HOUSEINCL D FURMATHORAN DIVANS in red treet
MATHORAN DIVANS in red treet
MATHORAN DIVANS IN THE REDEAL OF TAINS,

TAINS.

TOM.—On

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1889,

At 10% o'clock, I will sell at the rooms over Mr.
C. Hasse, No. 634 east Broad, near Seventh street,

a very nice assortment of HOUSEINCL D FURMATHORAN DIVANS in red treet

MATHORAN DIVANS IN THE REDEAL OF THE REDEAL NICE CURTAINS.

TAINS.—On

TOM TOWN DIVANS IN THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF

FOR SALE, A SMALL FARM OF TWENTY ACRES, with all necessary buildings, in a fine grove within one mile of the city, on a good read, and in an excellent neighborhood. It will be sold on a long credit, Address L. T., Carrier No. 4, City.

BRICK HOUSE of five rooms on Church Hill-FOR SALE, HANDSOMF TAREESTORY BAY-WINDOW DE TACHED BRICK DWELLING, just completed, No. 204 west Grace street; conveniently arranged; modern improvements, &c. 8U TON & CO., 1014 Main street.

so 7-FASu2t FOR LEASE, A VERY PRODECTIVE JAMES-RIVER FARM OF THREE HUNDRED ACRES, twelve miles above Richmond. Dwelling, Barns, Nables, &c. If needed, the requisite Teams, Machinery, lumplemente, Corn, &c., can be bought at reasonable prices on the piace. Richmond and Alleghany railroad station on the farm. Apply at once to au 23-cods:

Heal Estate Agents, &c.

MINERAL WATERS. BEAR LITHIA WATER.

BEAR LITHIA WATER,
PHYSICIANS RECOMMEND IT FOR KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATIC GOUT, INFLAMMATION OF THE BLADDER, PHOSPHATIC DEPOSITS, URIC ACID, DYSPEPSIA IN ALL ITS FORMS.
At the low price Bear Lithia should be substituted for muddy James-river water. Delivered in all parts of the city at 25 cents per gallon.
Telephone 144.
89-11. POLK MILLER A CO. se 9-11 POLK MILLER & CO.

WOLF-TRAP LITHIA WATER.

This WATER has been extensively used in this and other cities of the United States; has acquired a high reputation in diseases of the kidneys and other kindred diseases. It has been found beneficial in Gout and Rheumstian any business that would aid a man to convict a neighbor of his own crimes wasn't the business for me, so I gave it up."

Been found beneficial in those an independent of the business for me, so I gave it up."

With persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in those and independent of the property of the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in those and independent of the control of the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in those and independent of the control of the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in those and independent of the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in those and independent of the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in those and independent of the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in the persons having gonty distincts it has been found beneficial in the persons having gonty distincts in the persons having gonty distinct in the persons having gonty distincts in the persons having gonty distincts in For sale by all Druggists, and by PURCELL, LADD & CO.,
Agents Virginia Springs Waters, No. 5 Governor street, Richmond, Va.

> RICHMOND CITY RAILWAY COMPANY, PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED AT THIS OFFICE UNTIL THE 17TH INSTANT, at 5 o'clock P. M., FOR PAINTING FIVE > HUNDRED (more or less) OCTAGON POLES, > lately erected by this company on Main and > Broad and other streets. For further particulars apply to ANDIKEW PIZZINI, Jr., > se 7,9,15&16 Secretary and Treasurer.

PROPOSALS.

FOR SALE. A GREAT BARGAIN OFFERED.

We have a STONEMETZ FOLDER, in perfect order, which we will sell at a great bargain. It will fold an eight- or a four-page paper the size of the Dispatch or a four-page paper the size of the Dispatch or a smaller. It will also cut and page the eight-page paper. It can be readily attached to any press.

We refer to the Petersburg Index-Appeal as to the character of its work, since that paper has the counterpart of this machine attached to its press and now in successful operation. Address THE DISPATCH COMPANY, my 7-im.* Richmond, Va.

AUCTION SALES .. Puters Days. By John T. Goddin, Real Estate Agent and Austice Bank and Eleventh streets at 5:30 o'clock P. M., the DOUBLE TWO-STORY PRAME TENEMENT No. 509 Baker atreet, the lower portion occupied in part as a store and the rest as a dwelling, containing about nine rooms. Lot 30:140 feet to an alley situent feet while. About TWU-STORY PRAME DWELLING CN. 30. the TWU-STIDET PRAME DWELLING (No. 307, adjoining,) containing seven or eight recome. Lot Exild feet more or less to an alley stateer feet wide. Localed within two squares of the Ricetric railway and where houses rent so readily, this property will pay well se an investment.

TERMS: One thrid cash; balance in aix, twelve, and eighteen months for negotiable notes, interest adied, and title restained until all the purchase-money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the Court.

RDGAR ALLAN,

J. SAMUEL PARRISH,

CONWAY R. SANDS,

Special Commissioners.

COUTTS'S ADMINISTRATOR, PLAINTIPE, AGAINST COUTT'S ADMINISTRATOR, PLAINTIP, ADAINST POLLARD AND ALS, DEPENDANTS—IN THE CHANCERY COURT OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND,
I, Charles W. Goddin, clork of said court, ceriffy that the bond required of the special commissioners by the decree is enid cause of August 6, 1888, has been duly given.
Given under my hand this 4th day of September, 1888.

CHARLES W. GODDIN. CHARLES W. GODDIN.

By Sampson & Adamson, Real Estate Auctioneers and Insurance Agents 813 Hull street, Manchester.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF ONE OF THE TRUSTEES SALE OF ONE OF THE BETWEEN THATEST BETWEEN FIPTKENTH AND SIXTEENTH STREETS, MANCHESTER, VA.—By virtue of two deeds of trust-one dated November 18, 1883, and the other January 1, 1897—both duly recorded in the citer's office of the Hussings Court of the city of Manchester respectively, in Deed-Book Volume 6, page 389, and Volume 7, page 389—default having been made in the payment of the notes secured thereby, and being required so to do by the holders thereof, we will sell at public auction, on the premises, on FRIDAY, SETTMMER 14, 1883.

at 5 o'ctock F. M., that VALUABLE LOT front-at 5 o'clock P. M., that VALUABLE LOT front-ing 42 feet on the south side of Hull street and running back 120 feet, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth etrects. This lot is located on upper Hull street, where property is rapidly facreasing in value. It is a first-class site cliher for stores or residences.

at 10% o'clock I will sell at my auction-rooms a very good assortment of HOUNEHOLD FURNITIER, which will embrace all of the articles usually expected to be found at a sale of this kind.

Serverm WALNUT-FRAME SHOW-CASES.
A lot of TALL SALOON SHOOLS and other RESTAURANT FIXTURES,
A consignment of NOTIONS and many other miscelleneous goods.
A good collection of HOUNERKEERING ARTICLES.

GRORGE W. MAYO.

A UCTION SALE OF LEMANNS AD

By Gasto W. Many Auctioneers.

(Juo. B. Laughton, Jr., Salesman,) No. 34 Ninth street.

ELEGANT OIL-PAINTINGS, NEW FURNITURE AND CARPETS, CHOCKERY, ac. AT AUCTION—By direction of the owner, who is unexpectedly called to another city, I WEDNESDAY THE 12TH INSTANT, sisting of— 3 superb old-PAINTINGS, in elaborately-fin-tabed heavy gold frames; handsomely-carved sold; ROSRWOOD PAR-LOR SUIT of sofa and three chairs, in blue LOR SUIT of sofa and three chairs, in blue sph Coteline; 5 CARPEL'S of Tapestry and Ingrain goods; MAHOGANY SIDEBOARD, WALNUT EXTEN-SION-TABLE; CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, KITCHEN FURNI-

at 16% o'clock, at the residence No. 107 south pieces:

IRERIGERATOR, with Cooler attachment;
IRERIGERATOR, with Cooler attachment;
IRED-OF SOFA-LOUNGE, FENDERS:
MATTRESSES, BED-SPRINGS, TOILET-SETS;
Other HOUSEKEEPING ARTICLES.
Everything in the house is as good as new, has been well kept, and is being sold because of necessary removal from the city.

GEORGE W. MAYO,
Auctioneer.

By R. B. Chaffin & Co.,

Real Estate Auctioneers. TRUSTEES' AUCTION SALE OF the request of the directers of inclinional petual Building Loan and Trissi Company, fault having been made in the payments said company, we will sell by public auction, the premises, on FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1888,

HOUSEHOLD PURNITURE, NEW COOK-STOVE, LACE CUETAINS, &C., AT AUC-

TAINS, 2 CHAMBER SUITS in nice order, 1 WALNUT-FRAME BED-LOUNGE, NEW CARPET, PICTURES, BADDING, 1 NEW COOKING-STOVE and FIXTURES, used only a few weeks.

A quantity of useful HOUSEKEEPING ARTI-CLES, including Crockery, Glassware, Tinware, &c. in the house is in nice order, and will be sold, as the family is removing from the city.

GEORGE W. MAYO.

(Juo. E. Laughton, Jr., Salesman,) No. 24 Ninth street. HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE AT AUGMON.—By direction of the owner, who has left the city, I will sell, at No. 910% west Main street, at auction, at 10:30 A. M., TUENDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1888.

the HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, consist SIDERDARDS, REFRIGERATOR, BEDSTEADS and BEDDING, BEINTER BOOK-CASE, BOOK-CASE,
HALL, STAIR, and OTHER CARPETS, WASHSTANDS, CHAIRS, BUREAUS,
and a large variety of other articles.
GEORGE W. MAYO,
Auctioneer

By R. B. Chaffin & Co.,

Real Estate Auctioneers.

No. 1 north Teath street. ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1858, at 5k P. M., we will sail by public auction, on the premises, A NEAT PRAME COTTAGE with lot 28x10 feet to alloy 25 feet wide, situated on the south side of Wood sirest, in the plan of Bolling Green. This property is in the immediate vicinity of the Tauner & Delany Engine-Works and the Chesapeake and Onlo railway shops, and will pay well as an investment. TRANK: Liberal.

se 8 R. B. CHAPPIN & CO. TMMEDIATELY AFTER ABOVE Sale, say at 6 o'clock, we will sell another OUSE AND LOT on Wood street near by. The ouse has two rooms and sitchen. Nice little ome, and may be bought chean.

TREMS: At sale. R. B. CHASTIN & CO.,

By N. W. Bowe, Real Estate Auctioneer. TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THAT SPLENDID PROPERTY

"UPPER ARLINGTON HOUSE,"

SITUATED NEXT TO THE NORTHEAST COR-

NER OF SIXTH AND MAIN STREETS. By virtue of a certain deel of trust bearing date on the lat day of March, 1882, recorded in the cterk's office of the Richmond Chancery Court, Deed-Book 121 C. pare 485, to secure a certain bond therein described, and by direction of the holder of said bond and the drawers thereof, I will sell by public auction, on the premises, without limit or reserve, on

TUESDAY, Serfmann, 18, 1888,

AUGUSTA, SETTMER, 13, 158, at 5 o'clock P. M., that SPLENDID PROPERTY known as the "UPPER AKLINGTON HOUSE," situated on the north line of Main between Sixth and seventh street.

The LOT fronts thirty-five feet, more or less, on Main Street, and extends back between parallel lines one hundred and seven feet, more or less.

LIBBY PRISON AT AUGTION. By Rawlings & Boss

Real Retate Auctions No. 11 north Tenth street.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF THE THREE LARGE FOUR-STORY

BRICK WAREHOUSES SITUATED AT THE SOUTHEAST CORNER OF CARY AND TWENTIETH STREETS, BEING NOS. 2001, 2003, AND 2005

AND KNOWN AS LIBBY PRISON,

AT AUCTION.

By virtue of a deed of trust dated February B, 1888, and duly recorded in Deed-Book 134 C, page 572, in the clerk's office of Richmond Chancery Court, default having been made in the payment of a certain note therein secured, due August 28, 1888, for Sh.EX, with interest thereon from the

At 5 o'clock P. M. the PROFERTY described to said deed, as follows: All that CRETAIN LOT OR PARCEL OF LAND WITH THE BRICK TEMEMENTS THERIDON, lying and being in the city of Nichtsond, Virginia, at the coutheast corner of Cary and Twentieth Street, fronting 12 feet on Cary street and/cuming back 270 feet to bock street.

The building consists of three large four-story brick warehouses and are admirably suited for any monatheauting or other heavy business.

TEMES: Cash as to a note for $5.505, dus August 28, 1888, and interest on same from February 25, 1888, and expenses of sale and cosumbof the residue payable on the 28th day of November, 1888, to satisfy another note of $5.805 and interest from February 25, 1888, and enough of the residue payable on the 28th day of November, 1889, to satisfy another note of $5.805 and interest from February 25, 1888, and enough of the residue payable on the 28th day of February, 1889, to satisfy another note of $5.805 and interest from February 25, 1888, and the balance upon sorms to be annothed at the time of sale. The purchaser will be required to execute h a notes for the defected payments and secure them by deed of trust on the property.

LOUIS HAWLINGS.

FRANK W. CHRISTIAN,

By H. Seldon Taylor, Real Estate Agent and Auctioneer.

AUCTION SALE OF THAT COMPORTABLE DETACHED TWO-STORY PRAME DWELLING

NORTHEAST CORNER OF M (OR TURPIN AND NINTH STREETS.

SITUATED AT THE

above-mentance in the premises, on public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1898, THURSDAY, SEFTEMBER 13, 1898, at 5 o'clock P. M. The Lot frents on Ninth street 48 feet, with a depth of 70 feet on M street, and it has the necessary colvert connections. This is a sonig little borne with the rooms, in a nice neighborhood, near to businesse, and it is of that class of property which always remis well. TERMS: One third cash; beliance at six and twelve months, negotiable in tes, interest added, and secured by a deed of trust.

18 of H. Seldon Taylor, Auctioneer.

DUBLIC SALE OF STAUNTON-RIVER LAND. In pursuance of the provi-ous of two deeds of trust executed by Major naries 8, Carrington and bis slip, eccorded in a clerk's office of Halifax County Court, in FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1888, that TRULY VALUABLE ESTATE known as

"MILDENDO:

It is situate near Coles's Ferry, in Halifax county, Va. immediately on Standton river, and contains 1,600 ACRIS.

The hand is of excellent quality, well adapted to the growth of grain, tobacco, and other crops, and is in a g of state of cultivation.

The tracticulation a large proportion of low-grounds in a high state of fertility, and also a large tody in original forest of the finest oak trace.

1113 Main street. L'ULTON PROPERTY. SALE OF DETACHED TWO STORY FRAME DWELLING AND VACANT CORNER LOT NORTHWIST CORNER STATE

By request of the owner, a non resident, we will sell at public auction, on the premises, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER ITTS,
at 6 P. M., the above PROPERTY. The House is now occupied by a good tenant, and the vacant lot is one of the best in this improving section.

AND FULTON STREETS,

Go and see it; come and buy it.
Will be sold as a whole or separately it desired.
Tarms: One third cash; balance in six and twelve months, with 5 per cent, interest, secured by a deed of trust.
J. THOMPSON BROWN & CO., se 2,5,7,8,9,511 By W. R. Bowle & Co., Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers, 7 north Tenth street, Richmond, Va.

and Augustine Royall & Co., 819 Hull street, Manchester, Va. TRUSTEE'S SALE OF ONE OF THE MOST ELEGANT AND TRULY VALU-ABLE FARMS IN KING WILLIAM COUNTY, VA., CONTAINING 1,668 ACRES OF LAND, ON THESDAY, SEPTEMBER II, 1888, AT 1 OCCOCK P. M., ON THE PREMISES.
THIS VALUEBLE FARM IS KNOWN AS THORN QUANTER, AND WAS THE RESIDENCE OF THE LATE GRORGE TAYLOR.—

AT 1 OCCOCK P. M. ON THE PREMISE.
THIS VALUABLE FARM, IS KNOW AS
"HORN QUARTER," AND WAS THE RESIBY VITUO OF a decet of trust dated December II, 1873, ascented by John P. Taylor to the undersigned trustee, and duly of record in the County Court clora's office of King William county, I will proceed to sell (being required so to do by the beachdary) at public suction, on the promisse, on the day above monitioned, that MAGNIFICENT PARM known as "HORN QUANTERS."
COULTIMING 1.40 ACRES OF LAND, with a SPLENDID ERICK DWELLING thereon conalining twelve large rooms, together with abundant out-houses and two large baras. The dwelling-house is supplied with pipes and all neceseary appliances for furnishing hot and coulwater. There is also a canal by which water may be carried through the garden. This land lies on the north side of Panunkey river, only three and a half inflee from Hanover Courthouse and Chesapicake and Onto railway, on the main county road leading from Mangobick to Norman's bridge.

Four hundred acres of the above land is heavily timbered with white oak, post oak, and pine; 700 cares is wint is called Panunkey in the one side and two never-failing creeks runniste through it as susceptible of the highest cultivation; taxes grasses of all kinds well.
This tarm is well watered, having the Panunkey on the one side and two never-failing creeks runniste through it, besides numerous springs and a well of the finest water in the yard. The lawn and garden centain ten or isolve acres of land.
The lawn is beautifully terraced and contains some of the mest beautiful and rare shade-trees to be found any phere. There is a large millpond on the office and a mill site. Taken allogother, this is one of the most nod-land alundir farms so be found any share in the state of the cloud any
and garden centain ten or isolve acres of land.
The lawn is beautifully terraced and contains some of the sinest beautiful country retreat of or those looking for flux class investments, as the fertility of the